

OSU Hargis Fellows
Residency
June 2022
Doel Reed Center in Taos

The Doel Reed Center in Taos invites applications for a 2 to 4 week residency in June 2022. The purpose of the residency is to continue Doel Reed's legacy by assisting faculty to pursue creative work in Taos, NM. The residency will provide lodging at the Doel Reed Center in Taos and an honorarium of $1500. The OSU Hargis Fellow in Residence will be expected to devote a part of the residency to developing a proposal for a credit course that could be offered at the center in a subsequent year. Faculty will also be requested to participate in events on the Stillwater campus in for the Jim and Linda Burke Visiting Scholar.

The residence has internet access. Partners and well-behaved children may be accommodated.
